

LEIPURIN®

RESPONSIBLE CHOICE

Towards a more sustainable future together

We help our customers choose responsible products and services. Sustainable development is an essential value in all of our activities and we expect the same from our partners. In this way, we are able to ensure that the whole supplier chain from suppliers to customers follows responsible production practices.

Committed and high-quality supplier network

Leipurin Group values sustainable development; together with our committed and high-quality supplier network we work to make sustainability an integral part of our work every day. We actively encourage responsibility practices and environmentally friendly supplier chains with our inspirational company culture and concrete supplier code of conduct policies. We have a large selection of sustainable products and services suitable for your needs. Here are a few examples. We require our materials and machinery suppliers to not only participate in accomplishing our mutual goals but to also commit to their own policies on sustainable development and responsibility.

Reducing our ecological footprint

Sustainable global development requires action on a larger scale. We take that into account when developing Leipurin's product selection and supplier chains. We reduce our ecological footprint by minimising food and other waste; furthermore, we aim to centralise our procurement efforts to Leipurin's local markets. Whenever possible, we aim to use products that have been made locally to reduce ecological stress caused by transportation.

EXAMPLES OF PRODUCTS MADE LOCALLY IN FINLAND

- ✓ Leipurin's jams, marmalades and pastry fillings
- ✓ Leipurin's gluten-free frozen bakery products
- ✓ Leipurin wheat and rye flour and oat products

Forever Chocolate

Chocolate is an important ingredient in many bakery products. True to Leipurin's principles on sustainable development, we want to make sure that this essential ingredient is responsibly produced. Because of this, our selection includes products that have been made from responsibly produced chocolate, i.e. Callebaut products.

Barry Callebaut's sustainable development goals include becoming carbon and forest positive as well as using 100% sustainable ingredients in all of their products. In addition, their aim is to lift over 500,000 cocoa farmers out of poverty. It is also important for them to create ethical supplier chains.

OUR SELECTION INCLUDES VARIOUS CALLEBAUT CHOCOLATE PRODUCTS THAT HAVE BEEN RESPONSIBLY PRODUCED

- ✓ decorative chocolate
- ✓ cacao powders
- ✓ baking chocolate

We require our suppliers to commit to their own sustainable development and responsibility policies.
